Thilo Zelt
Principal
Roland Berger Strategy Consultants GmbH

Thilo rejoined Roland Berger in September 2014 as Principal in our Civil Economics, Energy and Infrastructure Competence Center in Berlin. His focus lies on consulting of the public sector, infrastructure topics, energy, renewables, and regulated industries.

He started his career with Roland Berger in 2004 before he decided to join a company active in the "green energy" sector. For some years, Thilo gained operational industry experience in the renewables sector with focus on sustainable bio-energy.

Thilo is a very experienced consultant for public clients on EU, national and state level. He is also a leading expert in the area of alternative fuels, renewables as well as green tech and participated in numerous projects and studies concerning the energy sector.

Thilo holds a M.Sc. in Economics & Management as well as a M.A. in Modern German Literature from Humboldt University Berlin.
